Description

This pair of easily convertible ballet tights, add both style and practicality. Made by excellent quality Microfibra (85% Polyamide & 15% Elastane), unlike the regular footed tights, the small hole at the bottom of the foot allows you to pull them up over the ankle, converting them to footless tights. It is stretchy and elastic, so you can open it wide enough to pull the foot through, but it stays tight and encloses the foot providing cover and flexibility.

We only use EU fabrics of guaranteed quality.
